

PARTNERSHIP LEARNING TEACHING SCHOOL ALLIANCE

Primary:

Improving Teacher Programme (ITP)

Delivered by:

Emily Manning and Zoey Cross

National College for Teaching & Leadership

Designed by experienced and successful school leaders this highly effective programme gives developing teachers a set of skills and strategies to reach the next level of professional practice.

The programme enables teachers to:

provide their students with the best possible learning experience improve standards in their classrooms and schools

increase their job satisfaction and quality of experience

work more effectively as active members of their school team

The Improving Teacher Programme:

provides improving teachers with in-depth coaching, tailored to a self-assessment of their teaching.

provides opportunities to deepen their understanding of high-quality classroom practice and teaching and learning. Participants improve their teaching through facilitated practice, observation of colleagues and working with 'live' students supports a wider range of teaching activities, including: lesson planning;

engagement, challenge, starter activities, plenary sessions, questioning techniques, assessment and developing effective differentiation strategies supports the aims and implementation of school improvement plans and other national agendas.

forms part of the professional development provision or entitlement for staff development within the school's improvement plan

Commitment

The Improving Teacher Programme consists of six consecutive weekly half-day sessions.

The work of these teachers is supported by a project manager at each school who attends the first and final sessions and supports the teachers' progress through the programme in their schools. It is an important coaching role that is pivotal to the success of the delegates.

Eligibility

The Improving Teacher Programme is open to all teachers who want to improve their teaching and want to learn how to deliver consistently good lessons that match sound theory with excellent practice.
