

PARTNERSHIP LEARNING TEACHING SCHOOL ALLIANCE

Leading for Improvement- Primary Middle Leadership Training

Delivered by: Mary Erwin

National College for Teaching & Leadership

This course aims to:

This four day course aims to support and challenge middle leaders with both theory and practical suggestions.

Topics will include:

Increasing effectiveness as a middle leader:

Understanding of the roles and responsibilities of a middle leader

Monitoring and evaluation to support school improvement:

*Providing meaningful feedback through coaching
Know how to use a range of evidence when monitoring*

Dealing with challenging behaviours:

*Improve communication skills
Engaging others in school improvement*

Building and leading effective teams:

*Key features of effective teamwork
Know how to lead a high performing team effectively*

Facilitated by:

Warren Junior School

Location:

Warren Junior School

Gordon Road

Chadwell Heath

RM6 6DA

Course Cost:

£350 per delegate

Date: (4 days- all days must be attended)

17/1/2017, 7/2/2017, 28/2/2017,
21/3/2017

Time:

9.00am - 4.00pm

To book, email:

CPD-TeachingSchool@warren-j.bardaglea.org.uk

Subject Line:

Middle Leadership Training

Course Presenter

Mary Erwin is an Education Consultant who has worked as an accredited inspector on behalf of Ofsted since 2008. As a former primary Head Teacher and local authority adviser, her key areas of expertise are leadership and management and English. She has delivered the Leadership Pathways programme for the National College for School Leadership, acting as facilitator and mentor for aspiring Deputy Head Teachers.

www.partnershiplearningtsa.com

 @in2teaching